

GroomingBusiness

The business resource for pet stylists

Self-Suds

A do-it-yourself dog wash can be a low-risk way of increasing a grooming salon's customer base.

- The Dog Days of Recession
- First Aid in the Salon

To the Rescue

Grooming an anxious animal can be difficult, and sometimes result in adverse behaviors. Many groomers turn to all-natural solutions, such as Rescue Remedy Pet, to help deal with these behaviors. This new variation of the original stress relieving remedy, available for more than 70 years, contains a blend of Dr. Bach's same five flower essences in an alcohol free formula, for a calming effect on any pet. Just place four drops directly into the animal's mouth, or on a treat, for a more manageable grooming experience. With no known side effects, Rescue Remedy Pet is great to use before nail clipping, ear cleaning, brushing and bathing. This alcohol-free formula is suitable for use with all animals, including dogs, cats, horses and even birds.

